

---

Track management programme on East Coast Main Line

FCP has been appointed by Network Rail to assess all aspects of decision making processes on the InterCity East Coast route and to identify opportunities for cost reduction. The review includes examining reliability, line speeds and safety issues and how these can be revised to improve efficiency without adverse impacts on service. FCP is also retained by Network Rail to assist on engineering for the East Coast Route.